Reds Spending People Like Allies
Spend Shells, U.N. Officer Says

TOKYO (AP)—United Nations troops fell back on both ends of the 100-mile-long Korean front today.

In the west they rolled back through Uijongbu, 11 miles north of Seoul.

In the east they abandoned Yanggu and pulled back below the 38th Parallel. This was the last Allied hold in Red Korea on the active fighting front.

In both withdrawals U.N. forces broke contact with Reds. The Allies also broke contact south of Hwachon reservoir, and withdrew so rapidly a vast no-man's-land was created on this east-central sector.

TORIES OUT FOR ELECTION

LONDON (CP)—Winston Churchill said today he and his followers in Parliament will do "all in our power, by every constitutional means open to us" to bring down the tottering Labor government.

The Conservative Leader scornfully said the Labor Party was afraid to face the voters and described Prime Minister Attlee and his cabinet as "that cluster of lion-hearted limpets."

(A limpet is a marine gastropod mollusk but the dictionary also defines it as "a tenacious officeholder"—humorous).

Churchill Not Coming To U.S. As Crisis Near

LONDON (AP)—Winston Churchill today canceled a planned trip to the United States because of the British Government crisis.

The Conservative Opposition leader and wartime Prime Minister said in a letter to Harold E. Stassen, President of the University of Pennsylvania, that "events have happened which make it difficult for me" to speak at the university May 8.

Churchill apparently was referring to the upheaval in the Labor government cabinet which many observers feel opens the possibility of a general election.

Churchill did not mention the cabinet crisis in his letter. But it was clear the opposition leader wanted to avoid being out of the country at such a critical time.

Churchill wrote Stassen:

"I deeply appreciate the invitation with which you honored me to speak at the bicentenary of the University of Pennsylvania library on May 8. Since your arrangements were made, events have happened which make it difficult for me to fulfill the engagement now. I hope, therefore, you will allow me to postpone for a while my visit to Philadelphia to which I look forward keenly."

Montreal Brothers Must Spend Lives In Prison

MONTREAL (CP)—Consecutive penitentiary terms totalling 105 years and 65 were imposed today, respectively, on Rene and Ovide Vallant on 66 charges that included rape, attempted rape, conspiracy and theft.

Rene, 29, will also be given 16 lashes, eight now and eight one year hence. To serve his

BUTTER FLOOR PRICE UPPED

OTTAWA (CP)—Agriculture Minister Gardiner today announced the government's buying price for creamery butter, effective May 1, will be 58 cents a pound for the next two years.

The price, known as the support or floor price, is fixed on a basis of delivery to Montreal. The price will fluctuate slightly at other points. This is an increase generally of 5 cents a pound from the support price for the year ending April 30.

Little contact was reported all beat back attacks in the centre aimed at roads leading to Seoul. And in the extreme west, Allied along the front. But U.N. troops forces fought a stubborn delaying action 14 miles northwest of Seoul.

On the northern approaches the Chinese were about 10 miles from the old South Korean capital.

But Lt. Gen. James A. Van Fleet, United States Eighth Army commander, expressed confidence they could be halted north of the Han River.

The Han borders Seoul on the south. However, the general did not mention the war-shattered city in his statement.

"We are withdrawing in order," Van Fleet said on an unheralded front-line tour. "We are keeping units intact. We are taking a tremendous toll of the enemy while enduring only minimum losses."

As the Reds neared Seoul, civilians streamed out of the city to the south. A South Korean government spokesman said 200,000 already had fled across the Han. Another 200,000 were expected to follow, leaving about 100,000 in a city which has lost military significance to either side.

It was a familiar flight. Communist troops twice have occupied and twice abandoned Seoul. Friday they drove on it for the third time.

DRIVE WEAKENS
The force of their drive appeared to be weakening, 8th Army headquarters said Friday. It reported U.N. troops in their path fought "a stubborn delaying action."

Five Communist divisions hammered toward the South Korean capital from the north. In some sectors the Reds had gained 30 miles, since they launched their spring offensive Sunday. But they paid a terrific price in lives. The U.N. command estimated 35,000 Reds were killed in four and a half days.

"They're spending people like we spend ammunition," one of fiercer said.

Allied losses were described as negligible. But there were losses. The U.N. withdrawal was a series of heroic fights.

Swarming Communist masses repeatedly surrounded U.N. units—Turks, Belgians, British, American. An Australian outfit fought Reds on three sides. Canadians, Filipinos, New Zealanders, South Koreans and Americans pitched in each time to rescue trapped units.

full prison term he would have to live to be 154.

In meting out the sentences Mr. Justice Wilfrid Lazure said he seriously considered sending Rene to the gallows.

The sentencing of the brothers climaxed a police investigation that started two years ago when a woman reported to police she was attacked by two men who forced her into a taxi.

Case after case was reported during the next 16 months in Montreal's west end. Police finally arrested the Vallants and two juveniles who were sent to Social Welfare Court.

$100,000 Blaze
PORT ARTHUR (CP)—Fire believed started by static electricity today swept through the warehouse of the North Star Oil Company on Memorial Avenue. Loss was estimated at $100,000.

Firemen battled the blaze for an hour in a successful attempt to keep the 100-foot flames away from nearby storage tanks and a railway tank car parked 50 feet from the building.

Scot Convinced Hand Of God Helped Lift Stone

This is the fifth of an 18-article series by the daring leader of the group of Scottish Nationalists who removed the Stone of Scone from Westminster Abbey last Christmas Eve.

By IAN HAMILTON

LONDON—Kay Matheson started the engine. She is (although she will be annoyed that I say so) a very bad driver, but that morning her bad driving was design and not incompetence.

Never has clutch been let in so jerkily; never has a car veered to one side so crazily. I looked back and waved to the constable. As Kay had expected, he was following down behind us—too amazed at the crazy driving to pay attention to anything else.

We drove to the car park. There was still a chance, but it was a slim one. The Anglia was now more dangerous than the old Ford. As soon as the hue and cry was raised, it would be roped in.

One of us would have to go with the Anglia to create a diversion and, I thought, it should be Kay. My duty, I felt, was to the Stone.

I did not dare to return to the Abbey for half an hour, for the constable did not go off duty till six o'clock. If he caught me again in another car it would be the end.

Where Are The Car Keys?

I decided, therefore, to lead Kay to Knightsbridge in the other car, and put her on the road for Oxford, where she had a friend she thought would give her refuge. I would then return to the Abbey.

I felt in my pockets for the car keys. To my horror I remembered they were in my coat in the Abbey.

I jumped into my Anglia, determined to put Kay on to Victoria at least. I drove through the back streets till I came to a set of traffic lights.

Then I transferred the piece of stone from the back of the car to the trunk, but apparently failed to fasten the trunk securely.

"Go that way," I told her, "and the best of luck." For the benefit of a passerby I kissed her goodbye.

I expected to meet her in court within a few days. In fact, it was a fortnight before I saw her again.

I walked quickly back to the Abbey, up into the lane through the door into the mason's yard. It was deserted.

The Stone lay at my feet, but of Alan Stuart and Gavin Vernon there was no sign.

"Alan! Gavin!" I called in a whisper. I passed through the sheds, across the patch of light and into the Abbey.

The light still glowed at the far end of the nave, but of the two boys there was no sign. I came back and looked for my coat. It too had vanished.

It came to me with a rush what had happened, and I hurried out of the yard closing the door.

Hacked Body Of Aged Man Found

MONTREAL (CP)—The body of 70-year-old Henri Bissonnette, his throat slashed five or six times, was found today in his home at East Hill in Quebec's Eastern Township.

Police said preliminary reports indicated theft was the motive of the attack. A box believed to have contained several hundred dollars was missing.

Knew darned well that rain would fall the day after I bought me new sprinkler.

If Charles Laughton is uncomfortable in Victoria, serves him right. I'll never forget what he did to them fellows in the boat.

The C.C.F. leader in P.E.I. says he's "greatly encouraged" by his boys getting 24 per cent of the vote yesterday. That's the first time the party's ever showed a sense of humor.

10 Dead, 1,000 Injured In Gibraltar Ship Blast

Panic Follows Explosion; Sabotage Probe Launched

GIBRALTAR (CP)—A Royal Navy ammunition ship blew up while unloading in this British fortress colony today and first reports said 10 persons were believed killed and more than 1,000 injured. The blast shattered windows in practically every building and caused panic among the population of about 18,000.

Naval authorities said only one member of the 26-man crew of the 1,152-ton auxiliary Bedenham was injured but other reports placed the blast casualties as high as 100. They were apparently all civilian port workers.

It was reported from La Linea, just across the Spanish border, that 50 persons were taken to hospital there and to nearby Algeiras. Some were reported in serious condition.

The ship blew up in a great cloud of flames and smoke as it unloaded ammunition at a naval ordnance wharf. Debris was scattered over a wide area.

LIGHTER GOES ALSO

(In London, W. J. Edwards, Civil Lord of the Admiralty, told the House of Commons he understood that a lighter—a small vessel used generally for unloading purposes—alongside the Bedenham, also blew up.

(An Admiralty spokesman declined to comment on the possibility of sabotage until an investigation. The Royal Navy blamed saboteurs for the blowing up last July 14 of nine ammunition barges loading explosives for Korea. That blast, in Portsmouth harbor, injured 19.

"No detailed information is available and the cause (of the blast) is as yet unknown," Edwards said. "But such information as I have indicates there is reason to hope the casualty list will not be heavy."

"The extent of the damage to the dockyards and city is still not known."

Early reports said the doors had been blown off the Roman Catholic Church in the naval colony and the famous Rock Hotel was damaged. Fires were started in other ships in the harbor, windows were blown out of a school and children were injured.

Pieces of sheared steel from the ship soared hundreds of feet in the air and rained down into the streets.

It was believed that preliminary explosions which frightened people into taking cover saved many lives.

Eyewitness reports said shells unloaded from the Bedenham first began to explode in a lighter alongside. Those blasts touched off the ship's cargo.

Ashore, citizens ran for basements and wartime air-raid shelters.

In nearby La Linea, relatives of Gibraltar's 3,000 Spanish workers were barred by Spanish authorities from crossing the border, Madrid reports said.

A great cloud of black smoke plunged La Linea and Gibraltar into shadow.

The Bedenham arrived in Gibraltar from Britain April 24.

11 Killed As Plane Crashes

LISBON (Reuters)—Eleven crew members were reported killed and five seriously injured when an American Superfortress crashed at Lagens airfield in the Azores today.

The Superfortress was carrying a crew of 16.

The crash occurred when the Superfort, which was having engine trouble, attempted to land at Lagens airfield, reports said.

The plane was arriving from the United States.

Giant Bomber, Fighter Plane In Collision

GUTHRIE, Okla. (UP)—An air force B-36 superbomber collided in mid-air with an F-51 fighter plane this afternoon and wreckage of the two planes fell flaming to earth 20 miles south-east of Guthrie in central Oklahoma.

Authorities at Tinker air force base, near Oklahoma City, said eight parachutes were believed to have floated earthward following the collision.

The Tinker field public relations office said the six-engined B-36—one of the nation's mightiest war planes—was stationed at Carswell air force base near Fort Worth, Tex.

French Premier Facing New Crisis On Election

PARIS (AP)—The National Assembly rejected today a proposed new French election law and a new cabinet crisis appeared imminent. Premier Henri Queuille hinted before the vote that he would quit unless the bill was passed.

The vote was 308 to 270 for the bill but it failed by three votes to get the absolute majority—311—needed for adoption.

Before the voting started,

Queuille, who has been premier only a little more than a month, told the Assembly:

"If the electoral reform bill is not adopted, the government will consider that it can no longer continue the task it has assumed."

The National (Lower House) Assembly voted 357-258 Thursday night against a proposal to return to the pre-war system of double elections. This measure previously had won a favorable vote in the Council of the Republic—Parliament's upper chamber.

Already, a bill based on a system of alliances to help the small non-Communist parties combine their strength against Red candidates has been passed by Assembly but was voted down by the council.

Fortune Smiles As Ian's Foot Falls

door behind me. The boys would, of course, be waiting for me at the car park.

I found the car still there, but no human in sight. I sat on the wing and lit a cigarette.

"Success had been ours, and we had failed to grasp it. We had got the stone to the edge of freedom, and our luck had turned against us. I drew the smoke, and it tasted bitter.

I broke into a run to the Abbey. There was still one chance, so slight and so fantastic that, looking back now, I know it was silly to try it.

The keys of the car had been in my coat pocket. Presumably Alan and Gavin had looked for them and had not found them. There was just a possibility they had fallen from my coat as we dragged the Stone through the Abbey. I reached the Abbey and went in for the third time that night.

I had left my torch with the two boys and on my hands and knees I groped along the route we had taken until I reached the altar steps. I found nothing.

Then I remembered my matches, and retraced my steps by flickering matchlight. At the door I put my foot on something. There, the key ring flattened and twisted by the heavy weight, were the keys of the car. Let our enemies and cynics condemn us, but we were watched over by God that Christmas morning.

I ran back all the way to the car. The battery was flat, but I swung the engine over by hand. In spite of the cold it fired at the first turn. I raced the engine furiously to warm it, for I did not dare have it stall on me.

Watch Fell Off In Abbey

As I drove along I noticed that there were two policemen on duty at the House of Lords door. I glanced at my watch to see the time. It was only then I remembered that it had fallen from my wrist, as we lifted the Stone from the Chair.

I backed the car up the lane to the door in the boarding. I had no very clear conception of what I intended to do. I had a car, the Stone lay within reach of it. I weigh less than nine and it was inconceivable that I should lift such a weight by myself.

I caught hold of one end of the Stone and dragged it to the car. It came without the slightest difficulty. I raised it on one end, and gently lowered that end on to the car. Then I seized the other end.

It meant that I had to lift the whole weight until I passed top dead centre and could lower it bodily into the car.

Yet I do not remember straining. I think it went quite easily, and I followed it in and lifted the whole weight on to the back seat, where I covered it with my coat.

Let the authorities prosecute us for sacrilege at their will, but I know that the hands of God were over mine when I lifted the Stone that day.

I drove from the lane as the watchman was phoning the police to report his loss. I did not know that then, but it would have made no difference. I was exalted.

I sat in the car and drove and sang and swore and praised God. We had met the impossible—yet, by the intervention of Providence we had won through in the end.

A Psalm In Exaltation

The bad luck which had dogged Scotland for the 650 years since the Stone was taken was broken. I was filled with a wild exaltation which could have made me merry. I sang the 23rd Psalm devoutly till I lost the words in a cheer that was half a sob.

I swung the car round the roundabout and on to Westminster Bridge I reckoned that I had at most an hour and a half before the police could get their forces marshalled, and I felt certain that they would concentrate on the roads north.

This car's number had been noted by the detective outside the hotel, and I felt certain that he could couple the two events. I must find the first piece of open country and hide the Stone. The trouble was I did not know the road. I knew that I should find the Old Kent Road, and by good luck I hit it quite quickly. But I could not keep to it.

Perhaps it was not adequately signposted, or perhaps I was stupid from lack of sleep, but at any rate I lost the road and wandered round in a maze of side streets.

I asked and was directed or misdirected. I asked again desperately and again got misdirected. A cold grey dawn was beginning to creep in from the east and I was almost in tears.

To have the most valuable cargo that had never entered a car, and to be the most sought-after man in Britain, were two responsibilities I could not jointly bear.

Another Amazing Coincidence

I was driving desperately down a side street when the last of the miracles occurred which brought us success. There, plodding away from me, were two familiar figures—Alan and Gavin.

We had never been here before. We had not arranged to meet here. When they had left the Abbey they had had all London to walk in. I had got lost, and the miracle had united us.

I pulled up behind them with a squeal of brakes. Without a glance behind them, they broke and fled down the street. I laughed hysterically.

A few yards down and they glanced back and recognized the car. I opened the near-side door. "I've got it!" I said. "I've got it! Look—it's in there—it's in the back."

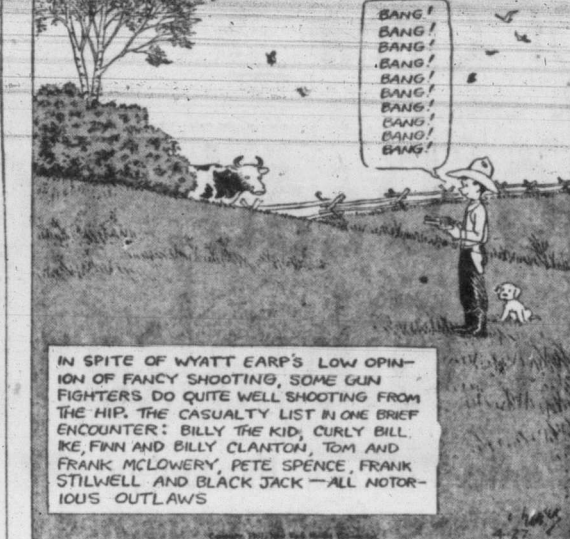

They would not believe me until they had pulled back the coat and seen it with their own eyes. Then they both dived to get in beside it and jammed in the door.

"Only one," I said, for I was fearful for the springs. Alan fell inside, and Gavin closed the door. "Meet at Reading Station today at 4 o'clock," I told him, and let in the clutch.

Praises Victoria On Return Aboard Aorangi

Thirty travel-weary passengers, including some Victorians from "down-under," are relaxing in Victoria today after a three weeks' voyage aboard R.M.S. Aorangi, which arrived here Thursday after an 8,000-mile trip from Sydney, Australia.

The Royal Mail ship, skippered by Capt. W. Whitefield and with a passenger list of 408, left early today for Vancouver after unloading at V.M.D.'s outer wharf. Some 30 tons of cargo, mostly foodstuffs, and some Australian wine for the B.C. Liquor Board. The ship will return to Australia May 3, sailing from Vancouver.

Cargo included 60 cases of canned meat, 50 cases of fresh pineapples, 600 cases of canned fruit and 240 cases of wine. The remainder of the ship's 1,890 tons of cargo, including wool, was for Vancouver.

Happiest passengers aboard were home-sick W. H. Martindale and his young son, Ken, who left Victoria several months ago to establish a home in New Zealand.

"You can't make a living in New Zealand," said the slim Victorian without further elaboration. "I've never been so glad to see Victoria in my life."

However, H. F. Franklin, security officer attached to the United States Consulate, Wellington, and his Chilean-born wife had nothing but praise for New Zealand.

HISTORIC UNIVERSITY

Baval University, French-Canadian institution of higher learning, was founded at Quebec by royal charter in 1852.

"From a tourist point of view there is no country as attractive as New Zealand," said Mrs. Franklin. "It is too bad that they can't get more ships to travel there. It could be a paradise for tourists."

Thousands of bales of wool stacked high in warehouses for shipment to Canada and the United States were being held up due to a longshoremen strike, she said.

"Everybody is going in for wool in New Zealand," she said. "There is big money in it."

Most Australian and New Zealand passengers complained of labor-industrial strife in their respective countries which they said was crippling shipping and trade. All agreed, however, that the living standard of the average man had never been as high.

C. Cain, managing director of steel equipment firm at Auckland, said his chief concern for his country was steel. He said he was going to the United States and Great Britain to see if he could get the necessary steel supplies.

Kenny Says Alcan Work Is Speeded

B.C. Lands And Forests Minister On Site Reports Back By Radio

Preliminary work on the $160,000,000 first stage of the Aluminum Company of Canada Ltd. $500,000,000 Kitimat project is proceeding rapidly. Lands and Forests Minister Kenney reported by radio today to the Victoria Daily Times.

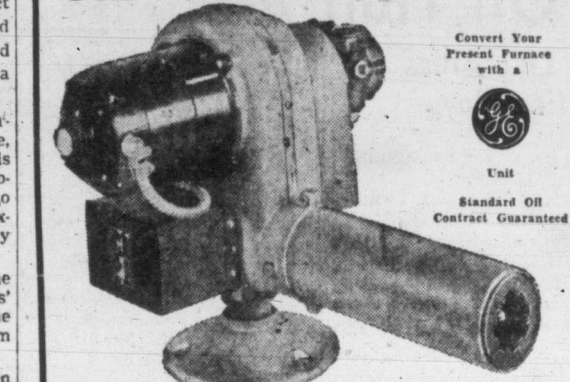

Aboard the B.C. Forest Service's headquarters vessel Syrahe, Mr. Kenney, with officials of his department and of the press today is returning from a visit to the Alcan project site. His exclusive interview was carried by the ship's radio and telephone.

"Alcan's announcement is the culmination of three years' negotiations," he said. "The establishment of the aluminum plant is most gratifying."

"B.C. generally and northern B.C. in particular, will participate in a great industrial expansion in shorter time than ever heretofore experienced with a guarantee of increasing continuity and further expansion of allied industries."

"Our government is both willing and anxious to co-operate and assist in having this plant in production by 1954."

Czechs Insist AP Man Gave Secret Reports

PRAGUE (Reuters)—The Czechoslovak government in a formal note today reiterated charges that William Oatis, Associated Press bureau chief in Prague, had been involved in activities hostile to the Czech state.

It alleged that Oatis, now under arrest, had "entrusted the former employees of the Prague office of the agency with the task of securing and verifying certain secret reports."

Oatis also "gained and diffused illegal press material insulting to the Czechoslovak republic and its order, and used Czechoslovak citizens employed at the Prague office of the Associated Press for similar purposes," the note said.

The note was delivered by the foreign ministry to the U.S. Embassy, which has been pressing for news of Oatis since his arrest Monday night.

NOTHING LEFT BUT CORPSE SAYS MULLINER

Fire department today came through the general estimates fray unscathed... but there is a story behind it.

"No, they didn't cut them, there was nothing left but the corpse," exclaimed Ald. Frank Mulliner, chairman today.

"We cut everything at the committee estimates meeting. The only item left of the $372,000 extraordinary expenditures was $21,000. As for the rest, they were just wages and general maintenance."

U.S. Delegates In U.N. Attempt To Get Co-operation From Others

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (CP)—United States delegates today were reported trying to persuade British and French members of the United Nations to agree to at least a limited embargo on Communist China. A British spokesman said his delegation has not agreed that the time has come for sanctions.

May Arbitrate Iran Seizure Of British Oil

TEHRAN (Reuters)—Britain hinted today she will seek "international arbitration" if Iran goes ahead with plans to take over British-owned oil interests here.

The British Ambassador, Sir Francis Shepherd, said today the contract of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company was set up under free negotiations in 1933 to run for 60 years, and can not be set aside by Iran alone.

The impending nationalization of the $500,000,000 installations in South Iran came to a head Thursday night when a parliamentary committee pushed through a resolution demanding immediate nationalization. It goes before the House tomorrow and will then need only Senate approval to become law.

Sir Francis told newspapermen that though Britain is sympathetic to the principle of nationalization of Iranian oil, she can not accept expropriation of the company. The British Government owns more than half the company.

MUSICAL CONFUSION

This is the sort of thing that starts arguments: "E.G.C." wrote the Victoria Times today he was confused over a London story appearing in the April 24 issue of the Times telling of the will of Dr. Thomas Wood, described as composer of "Waltzing Matilda."

The Victorian claimed his copy of "Waltzing Matilda," Australia's unofficial national anthem, says that the words are by A. B. Paterson and the music by Marie Cowan.

G.O.P. Policy Chief Softens Talk On Korea

WASHINGTON (AP)—Senator Robert Taft (Rep. O.) said today he and other Republicans don't want to tell military leaders how to run the Korean war but do want to prevent "appeasement" on Red China.

Taft, who told the Senate Thursday the Joint Chiefs of Staff are under the administration's thumb, said in an interview he does not believe Congress should try to enforce the military strategy proposed by Gen. Douglas MacArthur.

"I'm interested in stopping any appeasement of the Chinese Communists," he said. "I don't believe Congress can tell the Joint Chiefs of Staff how to run the war—that they should bomb Manchurian bases, for instance."

"But I do think Congress can tell the administration what it ought not to do in the way of appeasing the Chinese Communists."

The Ohio senator, who heads his party's policy committee, expressed his views on the objectives of a forthcoming investigation into President Truman's firing of MacArthur.

The Senate armed services and foreign relations committees will inquire next Thursday into policy differences which led Truman to fire the general as Pacific commander.

MacArthur's scheduled appearance before the committees continued to be a subject of controversy.

Denies Report Beach Roads Inaccessible

Councillor Ray Lamont of Central Saanich today branded as "without foundation" newspaper reports of inaccessible and barricaded roads leading to Island View Beach in that municipality.

"It is gross exaggeration to refer to a few boards and stands of wire tacked up a long time ago to keep cows from wandering as a fence against the public," Councillor Lamont said.

He referred to reports of gates and fences reported to be on public thoroughfares that were removed by a Central Saanich resident.

Famed U.S. Composer J. A. Carpenter Dies

CHICAGO (UP)—John Alden Carpenter, Chicago business man who became one of the country's most famous composers, died at his home here Thursday at the age of 75. Carpenter died of a heart attack after two weeks' illness.

His two most famous works were "Adventures in a Perambulator," a musical description of a baby's ride along the Chicago lake front, and "Skyscrapers."

Truman Tax Requests Facing Stormy Passage

WASHINGTON (UP)—Congress turned a frosty shoulder today on many of President Truman's requests for more power to control inflation.

Even the President's Congressional lieutenants conceded there was no hope of getting all the far-reaching control powers he asked. Many Republicans denounced the new program as a power grab.

Elsewhere in Congress:

Dawson—Sen. Karl E. Mundt, R., S.D., said "there is no question in the world" but that the Senate investigating subcommittee will call White House aide Donald S. Dawson to testify next week on federal job-selling in Mississippi.

R.F.C.—Sen. J. William Fulbright, D., Ark., took his fight for further reforms of the Reconstruction Finance Corp. to his colleagues in the Senate banking committee.

F.P.C.—Sen. Alexander Wiley, R., Wis., said the Federal Power Commission seems to be "playing footsy" with "certain private interests." He said the people of Wisconsin have a "deep suspicion" that some "smelling shenanigans" are behind the F.P.C.'s "legal hogus-pocus."

Communist Party—F.B.I. Director J. Edgar Hoover told a House appropriations subcommittee that the Communist Party is the core of a subversive movement, more dangerous and more fanatical than any World War II pro-Nazi group in this country.

Reds Can Thank Britain, U.S. For Modern Weapons

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia has had invaluable aid from Britain and the United States in making her arsenal one of the world's most modern.

Some of this aid was furnished knowingly when Russia was a wartime ally of the west and in the few years after the war; other help she obtained through espionage.

Soviet satellites already are using some of these ultra-new weapons against fighting men of the west.

Russian military scientists probably would be from two to five years behind those of the U.S. and Britain in atomic-bomb and lighter-plane development if she hadn't pilfered nuclear secrets and hadn't been handed prototypes of some of the best jet engines in existence.

Representative Clarence Brown (Rep., Ohio) told the House of Representatives two days ago that enemy planes shot down in Korea were powered with jet engines made in Britain.

The record indicates that the engines in the MIG 15s were not actually made in Britain. But they undoubtedly are perfected models of one of two British-designed engines sent to Russia in 1946 and 1947.

The U.S. Air Force, in a cautious comment on Brown's statement, says the MIG 15 has an "equivalent" in performance to the best of American engines.

Council Approves Retrenched Budget

Approximately $153,000, Or 3.2 Mills Is Slashed From Provisional Figures

As forecast in the Victoria Daily Times of April 17, City Council Thursday night settled for a retrenched budget of 55 mills which was at the same time, the highest in the city's history.

Last year's rate was 52 mills.

Approximately $153,000, equivalent of 3.2 mills, was sliced from the provisional budget of $6,485,060 which called for a tax levy of 58.2 mills. Estimated expenditure total left is $6,332,060.

Budget cutting which got off to a slow start wound up in high gear, when council plowed into public works estimates to chop off $100,000, just over two mills.

Staff reductions in interests of economy were urged by Ald. William Pinfold and Ald. Percy Scurrah.

APPROVES STAFF CUTS

"We should encourage department heads to reduce staffs," said Ald. Pinfold during debate on street lighting department estimates when three temporary employees were let go.

Ken Reid, electrical engineer, said the men were hired on the understanding that there would be no more than two years' work. Two left other jobs in civic service, to which they cannot return. They began in January and he felt it was hard on the men.

"It is morally wrong," said Ald. J. D. Hunter opposing both Ald. Pinfold and Ald. Scurrah. The latter contended the men were hired at one wage but the union they belong to wop a 15 per cent increase. The men were not on contract and they did not feel the city was obligated.

"A verbal contract is as good as a written one," contended Ald. Millard Mooney.

On the vote Ald. Hunter, Mulliner and Baxter opposed the lay-off on the grounds it was not fair.

"SAME OLD STORY" "It's the same old story every years—cut public works," lamented Ald. J. D. Hunter, when his estimates came up. "Citizens might as well make up their minds to get along with streets as they are now."

City Engineer Cyril Jones stated: "I'd like to make it quite clear that all the work which should be done, won't be done if $100,000 is cut off the budget. It won't be my responsibility."

Council agreed to up the Publicity Bureau grant by $2,500 to $27,500, over opposition of both Dr. Hunter and Hilda Baxter. Musical Arts Society grant was increased from $300 to $500, after a query by Ald. Margaret Christie.

Included in reductions were $4,800 from street lighting salaries and $3,000 from power supply; $5,000 from traffic signals; $1,100 from Beacon Hill Park roadways; $1,700 from Central Park drainage; $1,600 from landscaping.

LOCATION OF SUB MYSTERY

LONDON (UP)—The Admiralty said today the sunken submarine Affray, lost in the English Channel, April 17, with 75 men aboard, has not been located despite a continuous search.

Six to eight surface vessels with submarine detection equipment have been sweeping the 1,000-square-mile area but so far have made no definite contact with the Affray, officials said.

Meat Shortages Pop Up Here And There In U.S.

NEW YORK (AP)—Meat shortages are turning up here and there across the United States. Packers say they're only mild so far in some places, but the worst since the Second World War in others.

Mostly the shortages are blamed on "partway" price controls which have disrupted normal meat distribution.

An Associated Press survey of large dealers in 15 cities showed: Lamb scarce almost everywhere—partly a seasonal condition before spring lambs reach market in volume. Beef and veal supplies below normal to tight in New York and the larger cities.

Adequate supplies (except lamb), in Detroit, Atlanta, San Francisco, St. Louis, Kansas City, Dallas.

Pork and poultry apparently is in normal supply.

Most packers blamed the shortages on the fact that livestock prices were allowed to go on up after the general price freeze last January put ceilings on meat.

HOME GARDEN

Dear Mr. Beestall:

If you have mentioned the following in your column I must have missed it.

Tomato seed, sown in the open ground same as lettuce and as radish, during the last part of April, does well in this area.

Plants a little slow to get started, but usually catch up to transplants. Cost negligible, no trouble transplanting, no setbacks. Thin out as any other crops; use thinnings if you like.

Remind people to set the stakes before transplanting, i.e., if they prefer to set out small tomato plants.

Also, set the transplants on a slant. Results much better than when plants are put upright.

Roots should be only just under the surface, say about two inches.

"Twistems" save a lot of trouble when attaching plants to the stakes.

Yours, P. W.

The above letter contains some good advice for home gardeners. I believe that the outside sowing of tomatoes is the best way to handle them unless you are able to start them early and grow to a good size in pots.

My experience of planting tomatoes on a slant came from setting out a few hundred transplants with a plow. They were dropped on the side of the furrow and covered with the next turn of soil, and we had a wonderful crop that year. It is well known that leggy tomato plants, can be saved by burying a good portion of the stem, all of which will root. But the stem should not be set straight down into eight or 10 inches of soil because the tomato is surface rooting. When laid on its side under three inches of soil it will use all its roots, giving a larger top-growth and healthier plant.

It is well known that leggy tomato plants, can be saved by burying a good portion of the stem, all of which will root. But the stem should not be set straight down into eight or 10 inches of soil because the tomato is surface rooting. When laid on its side under three inches of soil it will use all its roots, giving a larger top-growth and healthier plant.

Roots should be only just under the surface, say about two inches.

The above letter contains some good advice for home gardeners. I believe that the outside sowing of tomatoes is the best way to handle them unless you are able to start them early and grow to a good size in pots.

MacArthur Urges Plan To Stop Slaughter In Korea

Heads For Milwaukee After Fighting Speech That Takes Chicago Audience By Surprise

CHICAGO (AP)—Gen. Douglas MacArthur today headed for Milwaukee and another huge civic celebration after a Chicago demonstration climaxed by his speech defending his policy in Korea.

MacArthur, dismissed from his Far Eastern command two weeks ago by President Truman, in a fighting speech Thursday night called for a "positive and realistic" Korean policy "to stop through strength this slaughter of America's sons."

His speech in Soldier Field highlighted the biggest and noisiest celebration Chicago has ever seen. "Our losses there... have already reached staggering proportions," he said. "These losses are progressively mounting by thousands each month."

He said "the advent of the war with Red China" has created "a policy vacuum heretofore unknown to war."

Gets $23.62½ In $25,000 Lawsuit

VANCOUVER (CP)—Three-and-a-half days of trial in a $26,679 damage suit ended today when the claimant was awarded $23.62½.

Mrs. Elizabeth Rutley, widowed fruit grower and poultry farmer, sought $25,000 damages for an arm injury alleged to have been inflicted when her truck was struck by another, owned by George Harvey, Abbotsford funeral director.

The jury assessed Mrs. Rutley's damages at $31.50 for truck repairs and Mr. Justice Coady gave her judgment for three-fourths of that amount.

Second Duncan Theatre
DUNCAN—Duncan is to have a second theatre. Odeon officials visited the city recently to select suitable sites for the 700-seat structure designed by architect H. H. Simmonds and are expected to make their decision known soon.

The present theatre, which recently won the Dominion award for showmanship, will continue to operate after the new show is opened, officials of the company in Vancouver said.

SLOW BUT SURE
Though a water-living animal, the beaver is a slow swimmer compared with the otter.

The crowd in the huge stadium—estimated at 50,000—interrupted the general several times with cheering and applause.

MacArthur's address, which had been billed as "not a major policy talk," caught his audience by surprise.

It was a fighting speech all the way. He said "that although my public life is now closed," he will continue to "advocate positive and realistic policy for Korea, designed to bring the war to an early and honorable end."

He derided interference with the American Far East political policy "by nations with only token forces in the field."

REDDY GETS SOME NEWS
Always keep a listening ear. But wait till the things you hear.

Reddy's advice is still good advice, especially the second part of it, for girls and boys and for grown-ups, too. Long, long ago Reddy learned that the smart fox is quick to hear, but slow to believe all he hears. It is the same way in the use of his eyes. He is quick to see, but slow to believe, all he sees or thinks he sees.

Reddy had gone over to the Big River. He has caught or found many a good dinner along the bank of the Big River, a sleepy or careless duck, a dead fish washed ashore. Reddy rarely passes near the Big River without running over for a look around just in case there should be something of interest. There was no duck waiting to be found. No fish was lying on the bank ready to be picked up. Reddy wasn't really disappointed. Long ago he learned to hope for things rather than to expect them.

Reddy looked down the Big River. He looked up the Big River. There was a sudden light in his eyes as he raised himself a little on his hind feet the better to see. High in the air some distance up the Big River was what looked like a speck. This was because the distance was so great. Reddy watched it closely. It was circling. Suddenly it seemed to stop. Then it shot down. Reddy couldn't see it plunge into the water because trees and bushes were in the way, but he was sure it did. He grinned broadly.

"Plunger is back!" he thought happily, and began to trot swiftly along the bank of the Big River. He had recognized an old acquaintance Plunger the Osprey, whom many folks call Fish Hawk.

"I wonder if King Eagle knows Plunger is back," chuckled Reddy as he trotted swiftly along. "Now he will have some one to do his fishing for him and he will have fresh fish oftener."

More than once he had seen King Eagle rob Plunger of a fish he had caught. All the time Reddy was watching as best he could for a glimpse of Plunger back up in the sky, but he didn't appear there. So Reddy was sure that Plunger had caught a fish and taken it to a favorite perch to eat at his leisure. If he had missed the fish he would have gone back to sailing round and round high above the water looking for another fish.

So at last Reddy reached the place he had been heading for. It was a big weather-beaten stump of a long-dead tree which Reddy knew was the big feathered fisherman's favorite dining table, so to speak. Many a fish had been carried there to be torn apart and eaten, and many a choice bit of fish had Reddy found dropped at the foot of that stump.

Plunger was there. He was just swallowing the last of the fish he had caught. Reddy saw at a glance that there was none for him. If he was disappointed he didn't show it.

"Welcome back, Plunger," barked Reddy. "Did you have a pleasant winter down in the land-of-always-summer you feathered folks talk about?"

"One of the pleasantest winters I ever have known. Of course there wasn't any winter down there. You really should try going down there when the weather becomes too cold for comfort and food is hard to get," replied Plunger, wiping his bill on the stump.

"Don't be silly. You know that no one without wings can go way down there no matter how much he may want to," retorted Reddy.

Plunger picked a bit of fish skin from one of his claws where it had caught. "I saw one of our two-legged friends down

May Settle Will Case In Private

VANCOUVER (CP)—The James Thomson will case, involving more than $500,000, may be settled out of court, it was reported here today.

The will was declared a forgery, but four suits have been launched against the estate on behalf of former employees of Mr. Thomson.

"We are considering a suggestion that we get together and talk over a settlement," G. Roy Long, a barrister now acting for the official administration of the estate.

Blast Worker's Home

DANVILLE, Va. (AP)—The home of another non-striking employee of Dan River Mills was damaged by an explosion Thursday night. Police said dynamite ripped the back porch and blew out the windows in the home of Herbert C. White, a maintenance worker. It was the second explosion in 24 hours affecting the residence of a non-striker. No one was injured.

WITH THE FORCES

Older Men Eligible For Reserve Forces

By ROY THORSEN

Older men not in A-1 physical shape can join the Canadian Reserve Army.

Maj.-Gen. Chris Vokes, G.O.C. Western Command, has notified all local unit commanders they can recruit men up to the age of 55. They can be of a category as low as Pulhems profile 4.

Hope is that this will help swell the badly understrength ranks of local units.

RECRUIT WOMEN NOW

Victoria commanders welcomed the news this week that women are again to be recruited into active and reserve forces. Maj. R. V. Parrett, commanding officer of the 8 Anti-Aircraft Operations Room—nervous centre of ack-ack units—is accepting women applicants now at Bay Street Armories.

Many functions of the operations room are particularly suitable for women as was proven during the last war. Only unmarried women will be accepted. Rank and pay will be equal with men.

LT.-Col. Walter Mosedale, commander of the 1st Battalion, Canadian Scottish Regiment, is mailing letters to employers urging co-operation by giving unit members time off or holidays to enable them to attend the July camp in Vernon of the 15th Infantry Brigade.

Recruiting of young men has been falling off, except in the 40th Technical Squadron, R.C.E.M.E., commanded by Maj. Frederick Roome. The magnet must be the number of trades offered in this branch.

"We're averaging five men a week," said chief-instructor, C.S.M. Percy Shrimpton. "Unit not only boasts the best strength of any unit per capita—108 O.R.'s and five officers out of a possible 235 all ranks—but averages 70 per cent on parade." The 13th Field Ambulance, R.C.A.M.C., commanded by Lt. Col. F. H. Bonnell, is in need of more clerks, medical orderlies, cooks, drivers and D.R.'s. Maj. Ted Drage reported.

Officer-Cadet Thomas C. McDougall and Lt. J. C. Stinson, service corps personnel attached to the medical unit, this week returned from special course in Vancouver.

IN U.S. AIR FORCE

Pfc. David T. Stark, U.S.A.F., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Stark, 1153 Fort, is studying teletype at a telegraph school in St. John's, Nfld. Educated in Victoria, he was born in Wheeling, West Virginia, where his parents lived for eight years.

Capt. Len Keyworth urges all members of the 75th H.A.A. Regt's cadet corps to attend next Wednesday night's parade at the Armories. Program will include a drill in preparation for the annual ceremonial inspection May 16.

The back-breaking job of polishing floors by hand or with a clumsy, weighted brush is a thing of the past! The G-E Floor Polisher with counter-rotating brushes does a speedy, gleaming job on hardwood, linoleum, and tile floors... right up to the baseboard, deep into corners, and close to furniture.

GENERAL ELECTRIC FLOOR POLISHER

Light to carry Weighing 16 pounds, it is light enough to be carried easily from room to room... yet heavy enough to do a lovely polishing job.
Gets in corners As the brushes rotate they flare out making it possible to polish deep into corners and close to baseboards, heavy furniture and rugs.	Snap-on brushes and buffing pads Polishing brushes have finger pull attachments for easy removal... lamb's wool buffing pads that snap on to brushes—give that final high-gloss finish.

Liberals Of P.E.I. Returned To Power

Recounts Likely In Some Seats As Votes Close—C.C.F. Deposits Lost

CHARLOTTETOWN (CP)—Premier Jones and his Liberal forces swept back into power in Thursday's Prince Edward Island general election, winning what he described as his last battle of the hustings.

Liberals took 25 of the 30 seats, gaining one more than they held after the 1947 general election. Progressive Conservative representation dropped to five. All five C.C.F. candidates lost their $200 deposits. Several by-election since 1947 had not changed the house standing.

Here are the standings:

	1951	1947
Libs.	25	24
Pcs.	5	6
Total	30	30

One of Premier Jones' cabinet ministers, J. G. Campbell, Minister Without Portfolio, lost his seat but others returned. Education Minister F. A. Large, however, won by only two votes. His running mate in 1st Queen's had a margin of seven votes.

AWAITED LAST POLL
R. R. Bell, 50-year-old lawyer-farmer who took over leadership of the Progressive Conservative party last year, retained his seat with a six-vote margin after a close battle, undecided until the last poll was reported.

Recounts in at least some of these close battles were considered likely.
Dr. W. J. P. MacMillan, former Premier who resigned the Conservative leadership last year because of pressure of other duties, retained his seat in 5th Queen's. His partner, D. L. Mathieson, a member of the last House, lost to B. Earle MacDon-

ALASKA ICE SWEEP MAY BE DELAYED

NENANA, Alaska (UP)—Cooler weather in central Alaska the past few days has lessened the chance for early break-up of the Tanana River ice pack, veteran observers reported today.

A $125,000 jackpot goes to the person or persons guessing closest to the minute the ice in the Tanana breaks up.

The old sourdough predicted an early break earlier in the week when water from mountain snows began running over the ice. Weight of the water was given as the eventual cause of the break-up.

The Chena paid off a jackpot of $11,000 when its ice broke up.

Sport Week

By JOHN LARDNER

There were a couple of points that came up in the first week of the 1951 baseball season. This Mickey Mantle, now. Would he or would he not be the next commissioner of baseball? And the ball. Was it or was it not, what the manufacturers insist it is, still the same ball they used in Aaron Burr's time, but slightly deader than Burr himself?

Checking point two, your correspondent made his way to the pleasure called Ebbets Field, along with 400 Venezuelan military cadets and Miss Gladys Gooding, the pipe-organist laureate of Brooklyn. Miss Gooding, the cadets, and I had the joint pretty much to ourselves, the season having ended for a great many Brooklyn natives the day before, when the Dodgers lost their first game.

The cadet band played "The Star-Spangled Banner" and the Venezuelan national anthem. The latter seems shorter than ours. Miss Gooding, fastest anthem player east of the Rockies, could have raked it up in about six seconds. It wasn't much longer than that before Elwin (Preacher) Roe, who came on next, learned the truth about the 1951 baseball. "Roe threw one of these organisms up to Willie Jones of the Phillies. Jones swung decorously. The ball flew like a homing streptococcus into a seat, an empty one, naturally, in the left-field stands.

"Tsk, tsk!" said Mr. Roe.

The cadets and Miss Gooding moaned softly, in the key of B flat.

'Ah, So Pure . . .

A few minutes later, a Mr. Sisler of Philadelphia, inspected a unit of rabbit's blood served up by Mr. Roe, and prodded it into a crevice behind the scoreboard. Toward the end of the afternoon, Jones lost another specimen, this one somewhere in the left-centre field seats. There was a cash customer up there, rehearsing a scene from "Robinson Crusoe," and the arrival of the ball startled him so much that he fled to an exit. Mr. Roe kicked the dirt at the mound. Miss Gooding spasmodically struck a chord from "Aida" on her console. The cadets began looking up trains to Venezuela.

The fact that the Dodgers managed to win this game at the last moment restored Mr. Roe's spirits a little, and after it was over, he spoke of the ball philosophically.

"I could keep my home-run total down by not throwing the thing at all," he said, "but if I did that, it might go off in my hand."

A Shillelagh To Mother Machree

Now, as to this Mantle. The boy came up to the big leagues with such fanfare that, as is well known, the job of high commissioner of the game was instantly made available. But Mickey works on the right side, that is, the receiving side, of the rabbit ball, and, as far as he is concerned, Happy Chandler can keep the commission. Hitting this pellet is even more fun than singing "Mother Machree" at banquets.

A lot of people, reading the name of Mantle in advance, thought that the spelling was a typographical error, and that baseball was about to have another visitation from a man named Mandel, who was known 10 or 12 years ago as the All-American rookie.

He Kept Right On Jumping

Mr. Mandel would visit a ball club and tell the manager that he pitched. He checked in at twilight, so as to get a dinner and a breakfast on the house before the manager saw him work. The next day, the manager—say, Casey Stengel, then with the Dodgers—would tell him: "Sorry, boy, I can't use you," and Mr. Mandel would say: "You may well be sorry, for I am gonna jump to the Athletics," and sure enough, he would transfer to the Athletics, or maybe the Cardinals or Browns. Pepper Martin once gave him a lesson in the lobby of a hotel in St. Petersburg, Fla. Rogers Hornsby once threw a shoe at him.

One day, Mr. Mandel met the late Judge Landis, who was on his way to play golf. "They are covering me up illegally, kid," said the All-American rookie. "Make me a free agent, and I'll sign with a certain club for a bonus of $40,000." The judge studied his golf clubs, and selected a mashie. Mandel disappeared on the run, perhaps forever.

One look last week satisfied me that Mantle is somebody else entirely. Mickey is not a pitcher. He couldn't have picked a better time for it.

Nineteen Figure Skaters Pass Tests Successfully

In the final tests of the season held recently by the Victoria Figure Skating Club the following members were successful in passing their preliminary tests: Lorraine Brown, Mrs. Evelyn Wallis, Murray McIntyre, Berna Pedneault, Sharon Wallis, Yvonne Pedneault, Gail Saville, Dorothy Miller, Gwynne Roberts, Carol Butler, Mrs. L. McEwen, Caroline Pauline, Clem Patterson Jr., Catherine Rivers, Jack Robertson.

Four other members, Eve Lettice, Glenna Pipes, Dorothy Bradshaw and Peggy McEwen passed their first tests. The successful candidates are pupils of the club's two professional instructors, Miss Marianne McMillan and Mrs. Vera Wallis. Judges were Mrs. John H. Kilgour, Mrs. Nora Foster and Miss Barbara Hunt.

Rainiers' Win Streak Broken

A six-run uprising in the eighth inning enabled Hollywood Stars to halt Seattle Rainiers' winning streak at six straight last night. The Stars won 8 to 5.

Portland Beavers stayed two games in front of the pack by catching San Francisco 5 to 4 in late innings.

Second-place Los Angeles Angels whitewashed San Diego Padres 2 to 0 with Fred Baczewski twirling a three-hitter. The big blow was Chuck Connors' ninth homer of the season.

Mameluke Looms As Choice For Kentucky Derby

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP)—Just in case anyone is trying to dredge a Kentucky Derby winner out of the mud of the Blue Grass Stakes, it might be well to stretch out in a quiet corner and think it over.

Not that this will guarantee anything, but the Kentucky hardboots still insist the $100,000 Derby May 5 at Louisville is as unpredictable today as it was six months ago.

Nevertheless, the trainers, owners and jockeys of horses finishing out of the money probably still are convinced they have some red-hot Derby material.

Cornelius V. Whitney's Mameluke staged a brilliant comeback behind race to nab the first division of the split Blue Grass Stakes yesterday at Keeneland. Mrs. Emil Denmark's Ruhe was beaten a nose by the King Ranch's Sonic in the second division, but was moved up to first when Sonic was disqualified for obvious interference.

Many Kentucky followers of the business generally take this view:
1. If the track at Churchill Downs is fast on Derby day, keep an eye on the Greentree Stable's Big Stretch. Heavy rains yesterday morning sloped the Keeneland strip, and Big Stretch isn't a horse liking an off track. He wallowed home about six lengths back of the unlucky Sonic and Ruhe.
2. Mameluke convinced a large majority that if it comes up an off track Derby day, he may be the big horse.

Indians Bolstered As League Okays Transfers

VANCOUVER (CP)—North Shore Indians received three badly-needed reinforcements last night via an Intercity Lacrosse League Commission telephone vote.

The five-man board voted to approve transfers of three Vancouver Combines—Mario Crema, Jack Byford and Bill Harris—to Indians.

North Shore defenceman Gord Nickle was given permission to play with Nanaimo Native Sons in the only other transfer granted by the commission.

Held in abeyance was the transfer application of Vancouver goalie Walt Lee to New Westminster Commandos. The Commandos already have Gord Pogue of last year's Adanacs and Harry Preston of Salmonbellies. They are also dickering with Doug Favelle of Hamilton, Ont. Tigers.

Indians meet Shamrocks in the season opener here Wednesday.

SERIES TO TORONTO

MIDLAND, Ont. (CP)—George Dudley, secretary-manager of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, announced today the seventh game of the eastern Canada junior hockey finals will be played in Toronto tomorrow night.

Ron Smith To Pitch Opener Monday

Blanks Salem For Second Straight W.I.L. Victory

Ron Smith took a reef around the starting post in Monday's opener here against Spokane when he set down the Salem Senators 3 to 0 last night. The victory, his second in the young season, made him an almost certain choice to go against the Indians when Victoria Athletics play their first home game of the 1951 season Monday.

Never in trouble after the first inning, Smith topped a fine effort by Salem pitcher, Joe Mishashek, with a steady six-hit performance. He has issued only six passes in two games.

Eight of the nine hits off Mishashek went to Marcucci, Thompson, Gaviglio and Jackson, each of whom connected twice.

Today the A's move over to Tri-City and four games with the Braves.

HEDGECOCK TONIGHT

Jim Hedgecock will start tonight and Jim Propst tomorrow. John Tierney, who joined the club in Salem yesterday, will probably see his first action in the Sunday double-header.

Tierney, who won 13 for last place Salem last year, and Bill Elbert, who was with Portland in 1950, are the latest additions to the Victoria mound staff.

Elbert has not yet joined the club, but the Bevos' management has indicated that he will. The additions will bring Dick Bartlett's hurling strength over the top again just after Barrett had cut down by sending Frank Chayes to Las Vegas and Warren Noyes to Idaho Falls.

Also in prospect is infield shoring with the addition of an unnamed Cuban shortstop scheduled to be sent down from Portland.

Assurance that Dick Bartlett will definitely join the A's for

Softball Fans May Pay More For Sport

Softball fans may get a better seating accommodation at present plans of the senior A league are brought to fruition.

The possibility of charging a higher admission than the 10 cents originally mooted was put forward at an executive meeting held last night at the British Public Schools Club, but was left in the air until further progress can be reported on the league project of providing bleachers for 1,000 spectators.

NO DELAY IN OPENING

If and when the bleachers are built, there will be no interruption of the playing schedule. Sunday's opening games will go ahead as planned, and construction of the bleachers will not interfere with future games.

Bert Nex, sponsor of the Pitzer & Nex entry, felt that many softball fans would be glad to pay a slightly higher admission charge to assist with the provision of comfortable seats.

The charge could be reduced when the bleachers were fully paid for.

Expected To Quit Baseball Post Soon As Resignation Of Walter Mulbry Accepted

NEW YORK (AP)—Baseball Commissioner A. B. (Happy) Chandler is ready "to pack up and go" in a few days now he has assurance that his enemy, secretary-treasurer Walter Mulbry, is quitting too.

Chandler refused to comment on yesterday's Associated Press story that baseball's executive council has accepted Mulbry's resignation at the Commissioner's demand. But it was learned Chandler will stick to his promise to resign.

The former Kentucky Governor and Senator, who twice lost his fight for a contract renewal, steadfastly has refused to quit unless Mulbry, his former sidekick, also was relieved of his post. The once-strong friends of 30 years standing, fell out recently.

Chandler handed his Mulbry ultimatum to John Galbreath, president of the Pittsburgh club, who talked with Chandler for five hours Saturday in Cincinnati. Galbreath had been sent by the executive council with orders to "get Chandler to resign immediately."

A member of the council, who requested anonymity, admitted Chandler has agreed to resign if Mulbry goes too.

In Cincinnati yesterday Mulbry said "my going or staying does not appear to be world shaking. I am agreeable to doing whatever seems to serve the best interests of baseball. This is in contrast to Chandler's attitude."

Fort Frances To Ask Venue Change

OWEN SOUND, Ont. (CP)—Down one game in the 1951 edition of the Allan Cup finals, Fort Frances have hinted they are not altogether satisfied with the plans to play all games of the best-of-seven series in Owen Sound.

Owen Sound Mercury's, unbeaten this year in their own rink, ran the home-ice winning streak to 25 games last night when they scored a 4 to 3 victory over Fort Frances in the Allan Cup final opener.

Officials of the Canadians said after the game they will seek to have some of the games shifted to Maple Leaf Gardens in Toronto.

Valleyfield Leads Series

MONTREAL (CP)—A double penalty to Sydney Millionaires in the first period last night paved the way for Valleyfield Braves' third victory in the best-of-seven eastern Canada senior hockey final for the Alexander Cup.

A crowd of 8,050 saw the Quebec Senior Hockey League champions post a 3 to 2 victory over the Maritimers. The triumph gave the Braves a 3 to 2 edge in games with the sixth contest scheduled here Sunday night.

Marrero Newest Star To Grace Nat Roster

Everybody likes Christy Marrero when the Philadelphia A's are in town. Now it's Connie Marrero, Washington's chunky Cuban with a one-hitter.

Marrero picked up where the Yanks' Eddie Lopat and Spec Shea left off. The Latin missed his shutout last night on Barney McCosky's first home run since 1947 but he pitched the majors' first one-hitter of 1951.

The fun-loving little Cuban stuffed a seventh straight loss down the A's throats, 2 to 1, winning on homers by Mickey Vernon and Gil Coan. It was his second victory, both over Philadelphia.

Johnny Sain shut out the Giants, 3 to 0, with six hits as Boston spoiled Sal Maglie's 64th birthday.

REACHES CENTURY

It was Sain's 100th victory in the majors.

With Billy Goodman slugging four hits and knocking in three runs, the Red Sox knocked off the Yanks, 13 to 7, in a three-hour, 30-minute struggle. There were 20 walks and 22 hits off a parade of pitchers.

Mrs. Mae H. Bell, Liverpool, Queen's Co., Nova Scotia, attended a party a few months ago and in the course of her conversation with some other women told them how she had relieved arthritic pain by taking SARNAK after having suffered with the pain for almost three years.

"I suffered from arthritic pain for three years and last spring suffered pain so much in my shoulder, arm, fingers and ankles that I could hardly stand it. I tried different kinds of pills and medicines but nothing gave me relief. Then a friend told me to try SARNAK. I took eight bottles of SARNAK and almost from the beginning I had relief. Now I wouldn't be without SARNAK in the house and I am glad to tell everyone what SARNAK has done to bring me relief."

TRY SARNAK THIS SPRING

After a long winter resistance is often low and you have a feeling of general tiredness, lack of energy and vitality. When you feel this way old troublesome symptoms often cause suffering. SARNAK is so effective for aches and pains and general run-down condition that you usually get results within the first few days.

Make up your mind to give SARNAK a chance to help you this spring as it has helped thousands of others who had gone on day after day suffering. Thousands of bottles of SARNAK are sold every day in Canada. Remember, there are no substitutes for SARNAK. Always insist on the genuine SARNAK. In some rural sections, where there are few drug stores, SARNAK may be difficult to obtain. Don't pay anyone more than $1.35 a bottle. Order by mail from your druggist or mail order house, to assure yourself not paying grey market prices. If one druggist does not have SARNAK, try another.

Robert Stack Is Determined To Be A 'Positive' Character

By ERSKINE JOHNSON

HOLLYWOOD (NEA)—Exclusively yours: Robert Stack is engraving "Rest in Peace" over the friendly cad roles he's been playing and to prove it he has been quietly turning down parts for the past six months.

With his emoting in "The Bullfighter and the Lady" zooming the Stack stock, he told me: "This is the first time I've liked myself on the screen. You've either got to get the girl or lose her by kicking the bucket. Anything else is negative. I'm no longer going to be known as the guy who gives the girl to Bing Crosby."

Florence Marly and her husband, producer Pierre Chenal, are talking about a divorce. . . . M.G.M. high brass is all smiles over Liz Taylor's new heart interest in film newcomer Ralph Meeker—single, crew haircut, in his early 20's, muscular.

Judy Garland's earnings this year, her pals say, will top her salary checks for any other year of her career. That's why she's indifferent to movie producers who say, "Now if you'll just lose weight."

Andrea King has been signed to star in a new TV drama series. Margaret Truman won't face that radio mike unprepared when she co-stars on the air April 26 with Jimmy Stewart in "Jackpot."

She's slated for three eight-hour dramatic lessons with NBC's Bill Karn.

Margaret Acts

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Margaret Truman making her acting debut Thursday night with a comedy performance drew praise from her co-workers and approval from President Truman.

The President's daughter performed a role as James Stewart's wife in a radio version of the 1950 film "Jackpot." She telephoned her father after the performance and told reporters: "He enjoyed it."

Stewart said: "I think she could make a go of being an actress."

HOLLYWOOD REVIEW

Watching Parade Only Time Buddy Baer Has Advantage

By BOB THOMAS

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Take it from Buddy Baer, it's no fun being a one-man gang.

The former boxing behemoth is a ponderous 6 feet, 6½ inches, with 272 pounds of beef. While pint-sized men may look at him with envy, Buddy sighs:

"There's only one time when being this big has an advantage: When you're watching a parade."

At all other times, he added, it's a bore, a bother and an expense. "Why, the only things I can buy in a clothing store are handkerchiefs and ties," he explained.

All his other clothes must be specially made. His shirt collar is 18½, the sleeve 40 inches. His shoes are miniature gunboats—15 double E's. As for his suit size, he doesn't know; the numbers don't run that high.

CLUB CLOWNS, TOO

Another hazard occurs in night clubs and other public places. Ordinary citizens, with the overconfidence that comes with an overdose of alcohol, often try to pick fights with him.

"They are always coming up to me and saying belligerently, 'Aw, ya bum, you never could fight,'" he said.

"I agree with them. I talk with them for 15 minutes and they usually go away happy."

Buddy, who has a pleasant baritone, has been touring night clubs.

Buddy's size has paid off in Hollywood, despite his wallings. He has landed a number of films and is now starting a good role in "Flame of Araby."

Pearson Outlines Stand On Bombing Manchuria

Opposition In Commons Continues Attack On Budget Plan To Increase Sales Tax To 10%

Ottawa (CP)—Canada feels that she should be consulted before United Nations aircraft strike at Communist air bases in Manchuria, though she concedes that such consultation may not always be feasible.

That viewpoint was placed before the Commons Thursday by External Affairs Minister Pearson in comment on a report that the United States has told U.N. Korean allies she plans to attack those bases if they are used to launch large-scale assaults on U.N. forces in Korea.

Mr. Pearson's statement, made at the House opening, took the spotlight away from a slow-moving repetitious debate on resolutions to implement the government's 1951-52 budget.

That debate continued opposition attack on the increase in the general sales tax to 10 per cent from 8 per cent. It included suggestions that the government withdraw the increase and replace it by a boost in taxes on liquor.

The chamber voted 75 to 37 against a motion, introduced by Stanley Knowles (C.C.F., Winnipeg North Centre), which would have done that very thing—substitute a new hike in the liquor tax for the increase in the sales levy.

Solon Low, Social Credit leader, asked the C.C.F. and Progressive Conservative parties to join his group in a filibuster against the sales tax increase. They could force the government to withdraw the increase by keeping the chamber "here until Christmas."

M. J. Coldwell, C.C.F. leader, said the sales tax was "wrong in principle" and struck heavily at those who lived on pensions and other fixed incomes.

John Diefenbaker (P.C., Lake Centre, Sask.) said that while the cost of living was going up the government gave more "speed to the merry-go-round" by adding to the sales tax.

George Cruickshank (Lib., Fraser Valley), joining those calling for a liquor-tax increase, suggested such an increase would neither reduce consumption nor encourage moonshine liquor.

TROOPS TALLY ENEMY DEAD

Correspondent With Canadians Tells How Red Attacks Stopped

From the West Central Front in Korea, Bill Ross, Canadian Press correspondent with the Princess Patricia's Light Infantry, writes of the current enemy attack. Under censorship regulations, he cannot yet mention Canadian troops, the Patricia's or the home towns of the men he interviews.

By BILL BOSS

WEST CENTRAL SECTOR. Korea (Delayed) — Aggressive patrolling by both Chinese, Communists and specially-trained United Nations mountain troops marked activity today in the Korea west central area, where one part of the current enemy offensive was forced to a complete and bloody halt Wednesday.

Once again concentrated artillery and mortar fire either killed or forced them out.

In the immediate area of a U.N. battalion there are more than 100 enemy bodies—exacted by these troops during the ferocious engagement fought Tuesday night, Wednesday and Thursday night.

Undoubtedly more were carried away by the enemy, together with his wounded.

A U.N. chaplain who previously was a missionary to China, started the enemy by interrupting their radio communications, telling them they were wasting their time.

"Pack up! Go home!" he told them.

While flanking U.N. troops where going into an attack to exploit the situation which threw the enemy off balance in this sector, troops watched from the hills and headquarters officers listened to orders exchanged by radio.

At one point the Chinese entered the radio frequency and began a harangue. The signals officer got the chaplain on the frequency of the attacking troops, put him on the air and the chaplain did the rest.

No more Chinese was heard during the attack, which won its objective to a northwest position.

Fair Prize List

DUNCAN—The biggest prize list ever to be offered at a fair on Vancouver Island, other than at Victoria, valued at $4,860, was approved today by the Cowichan Agricultural and Industrial Exhibition Board.

This is $1,250 more than was offered last year, the increase coming mainly from new divisions and additional classes in existing divisions.

VICTORIAN SPRING

by Cecil Maiden

LXX

"I had no news of you—no despatches whatever since you arrived in San Francisco on your way down."

"But you know very well we'd agreed not to arrange any booking for the theatre until my return."

"This is an entirely different sort of affair."

"How many people in this city want to see an Exposition of Children's Dancing?"

"Half the population."

"I don't believe it."

"Anyway, I've promised the theatre to Miss Murray and Miss Merridew for tomorrow night. It's all settled."

"To hell with that—for a tale! The troupe I've brought with me has also been given a promise. A full week's engagement, starting tomorrow. There'll be other gaps in the bookings, later in the year. You must explain that to these women, and get their affair postponed."

"Impossible."

"There's nothing else you can do."

They were getting nowhere. Dukes toyed with his cravat and attempted to appear both calm and nonchalant. He had hoped that if he brought his partner, so shortly after his return, to the comfortable dining room of the St. Nicholas Hotel (and for quite an expensive dinner, moreover) he would be able to explain the position regarding Monday's performance without any great difficulty. He had felt that for all Tom Ambleside's stubbornness he would see reason and permit the run of Bailey's Comics to open on the Tuesday. But Ambleside had not seen reason. And that objectionable individual, Mr. Finkel, had been adamant. The troupe had been promised a full week's money. He, Mr. Finkel, had personally guaranteed it. Would Mr. Dukes like to pay the company the money they would lose for the Monday's performance—out of his own pocket? Mr. Dukes would not.

Ambleside swallowed the last of an expensive glass of champagne—the last of quite a few glasses, and instead of feeling any mellow towards his partner, was all the more determined that the arrangements he had made should suffer no interference.

"I've tried to keep a civil tongue in my head, Mortimer, regarding the chaos you've tried to inflict on the theatre. I've tried it many times. And this is where I draw the line. If you knew a little bit more about business and thought less of your dreams this sort of thing wouldn't arise."

The last few words ended any possible chance there might have been for a settlement. If there was one subject upon which Mortimer Dukes was sensitive, it was the subject of his practical theatrical training.

As he sat there, twisting the stem of his wine glass, his face reddening, he remembered too many occasions on which he had given way to his partner. They were, moreover, equal partners; had originally agreed on a precisely equal voice in the theatre's affairs.

This time he would not give way. He had not only taken a liking to Miss Merridew, but had discerned in her, after being invited to rehearsal of the show, a true artist. And remembering this, no power on earth would make him yield ground when the theatre seats were already half sold, and the event billed "by the courtesy of Mr. Mortimer Dukes, Manager."

"So you'll get in touch with your two dancing teachers, Mortimer, and see that the thing's postponed. You can add my regrets, too."

Mortimer Dukes drew a deep breath and looked at his partner with grim determination. "For once, Tom, you're not going to get your way about this thing."

The Dancing Display has already been billed, and the seats half paid for. It will go on as arranged."

"Listen, Mortimer. A fight with me might not matter so much—but do you want to start a public riot?"

"The citizens have been promised."

"And the miners have been promised 'Bailey's Comics.' The 'Comics' Bills are going up too."

"They will be torn down."

"By whom?"

"I'd advise you not to start shouting. Save your pretty voice for a private room."

It was with difficulty that Ambleside restrained himself. He had clenched his fists and his fighter's chin was thrust out. Only the realization that he was well-known in Victoria, and that there were others in the hotel dining room, kept him motionless.

"You can make whatever plans you like," he said presently. "Remember that I warned you. I'm going upstairs to talk to Finkel about this. I think you're going to regret it."

No Civil Defence Program For 'Hams'

Until Ottawa decides what authority radio amateurs will have in event of war, no program can be worked out to embrace "hams" in civil defence work. Maj.-Gen. C. R. Stein, civil defence co-ordinator for B.C., told members of Victoria's Short Wave Club.

Declaring good communications would be tremendously important in time of attack, Gen. Stein urged amateur radio men to keep in touch with local defence authorities and organize themselves as best they could until such time as a government directive is given.

Funeral Saturday For Benjamin Osborn

Funeral services will be held Saturday at 3 at Hayward's for Benjamin Forrest Osborn, 72, veteran B.C. Coast Steamships engineer, who died Wednesday at his home, 1953 Lullie.

By ART STOTT

When you've finished Senator Estes Kefauver's Saturday Evening Post series on his committee's investigation of U.S. mobsters and their slimy political affiliations, all illusions of glamour have been stripped from big time crime. Kefauver, in his articles as in his hearings, has done a great job. Gangsters are revealed for the sleazy characters they are. Their ways of life are disclosed to be desolate wastelands of spiritual poverty, without honor, without decency, without dignity.

From such reading you look up with renewed respect to the ordinary, law-abiding citizen who goes about his work above board and supplies honest labor for an honest dollar. In spite of the cynical analysis of Menckens or Philip Wylie, the little guys don't look so bad. "Common manism" isn't quite such a ridiculous thing as some of the more acid critics have suggested.

IF YOU'RE ONE of us little guys, there's a point in the latest installment of the Post series that may bring you up a bit short. On the stand was Frank Costello, the so-called king of the underworld, whose truculence had changed to a whine. Wrote Kefauver:

"Costello pretty much wrote his own epitaph toward the end of his examination. Senator Tobey asked him why he became an American citizen. 'Why?' quavered Costello. 'Because I love this country.' The senator beseeched him eloquently to look back over the past 20 years and think of one thing he could speak of 'to your credit as an American citizen.' Costello sat stunned while the seconds ticked by; then finally he blurted, 'Paid my tax.' At that moment the whole courtroom laughed at the man who calls himself Costello. His self-deflation was complete."

THE SOLE CLAIM to compassion by the boss of the underworld was performance of a routine duty which kept him out of jail.

If you, a Canadian, had been on the witness stand in an important inquiry, and some one had asked you to look back over the last 20 years and think of one thing to your credit as a Canadian citizen, what would you have said?

It's an interesting question, if you care to probe it. Would you have pulled your income tax returns out of your pocket — if you haven't mailed them yet — and pointed to receipts for charitable donations? Would you have said you'd tried to lead a decent law-abiding life? Would you have pointed to your children, if you had any, and said you were doing your best to make a good generation of young Canadians? Would you have spoken of public service? If you had served in the forces during the war, you'd have an excellent piece of testimony. When anybody asks you what's to your credit as a Canadian, you've got every right to be proud of replying that you thought enough of the country to fight for it.

STILL, THERE ARE lots of good Canadians who didn't or couldn't go to war. How would they answer? They'd probably be typically Canadian and say: "Well, gee, nothing much. I guess I've tried to be a good Canadian, but there isn't anything I'd like to put my finger on."

A guy would have to be pretty self-righteous to stand up in public and make even an honest answer to the question. What would happen if he did? His acquaintances would look at him in amazement and mutter to one another, "Listen to the egotistical old bat. It's all right for him to do these things, and he's a good guy for doing them. But why should he admit it, out in the open this way? Sounds like a candidate running for office, don't he?"

THE DEEDS OF good citizenship aren't things that should be trumpeted to the skies by those who do them. They're pretty personal matters between a guy and his own conscience. As soon as he starts parading them, they get a little tarnished. If he wants them known at all, the trick is to let his friends do the publicity job. It sounds better that way.

More Rain For Victoria Area— Weatherman

Downpour Eases Fire Situation On Mainland

Drought-hit Saanich peninsula farms early today received .13 of an inch of rain and more was forecast late today by the Weather Bureau here.

Only a "trace" of precipitation was recorded in Victoria. It was only the second "trace" of rain here this month, weather observers said, pointing out there have been 26 rainless days thus far this month and three in March to constitute the worst spring drought here in more than half a century.

Rain poured over forest lands and farms in the southern B.C. mainland, however, easing the dangerous forest fire situation and ending the work of hundreds of fire fighters in the Fraser Valley and other sections of the province.

Hundreds of acres of forest lands were fire-swept in the last week, but damage generally was confined to non-commercial timberlands.

Cooler weather was general throughout the province. The rain extended from the Queen Charlotte Islands, 500 miles north of Vancouver to Vancouver and into the interior.

Three new fires were reported in Vancouver forest district today, all at Sechart and all under control. A total of 21 are now burning in the district.

Victoria weatherman William Mackie said "intermittent light rain is expected throughout today with cloudy skies and mild weather."

Decision In Lottery Case Of Interest

Optimist club members of Victoria and Vancouver today awaited reasons of the B.C. Court of Appeal for quashing a conviction against three Vancouver Optimist Club members for conducting a lottery at a club carnival on Jan. 28, 1950.

The reasons for judgment may make it legal for clubs to hold quiz contests which in the past the law has regarded as a form of lottery, and contrary to the Criminal Code, it was pointed out.

Appeal Court Thursday allowed the appeal of David Cohen, Thomas Hines and V. Gordon Hinde against a conviction handed down in Vancouver Assize Court Feb. 21. Charges arose from a draw held by the Optimists at their Indian Carnival at the Vancouver Seaford Armoury when $12,000 in prizes including a house and a car were distributed.

Tells Police History

The story of the B.C. Police Force, from its earliest times, was traced by Cecil Clark, retired deputy commissioner of the force, in an address Thursday night to the Victoria branch of the B.C. Historical Association.

Doctor's Wife Well After Surprise Birth

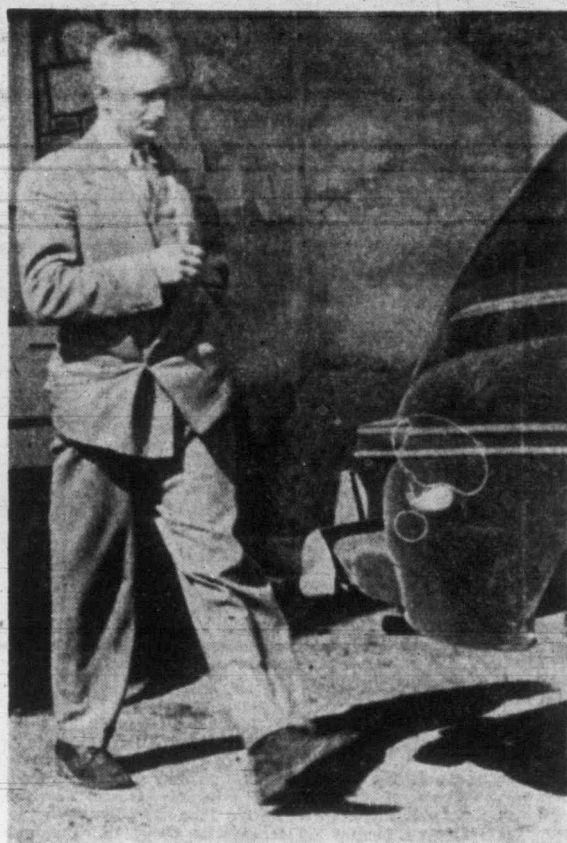

Mrs. W. D. Marshall, 3315 Ripon Road, wife of an obstetrician, was "resting comfortably" in Royal Jubilee hospital today, after giving birth almost unaided Thursday to a seven-pound son at her home.

The child was born just before the arrival of a doctor who was hurriedly summoned by a woman friend of Mrs. Marshall's who aided in the delivery.

Company Plea In 'Lockout'

Counsel for Builders' Sash and Door Ltd., 350 Garbally Road, today entered a plea of not guilty in behalf of the firm to a charge of locking out company employees April 9.

Trial will be conducted May 10. B.C. Labor Relations Board, through the International Woodworkers of America (C.I.O.-C.C.L.), charged the company with violating a collective agreement by locking out 10 workers, Phillip Vass Russell leaves Saanich court.

Russell Brothers Face Additional Charges

Phillip Vass Russell, 3283 Seaton, alleged "cat burglar," today faced eight additional charges of breaking and entering and theft, filed in Saanich police court Thursday afternoon. He was remanded to May 3 without election or plea.

Second charge of retaining stolen property was also filed in Saanich court against his brother, William Edward Russell, Shelbourne Street. George F. Gregory, counsel for William, elected preliminary hearings in city court next Thursday afternoon.

Phillip will face additional charges in Oak Bay and R.C.M.P. territory. It was learned by the Times today that Oak Bay police have identified articles in the vast collection of loot taken from a score or more homes in that municipality during the last few years.

ROBBERIES LISTED

In addition to the original charge of breaking into and robbing the home of C. A. M. Hunter, Ten Mile Point, against Phillip, he is charged with similar offences at the home of Miss A. Baker, West Saanich; Mrs. Carl Stocker, 2261 Cedar Hill; Nigel Tomlin, 1981 Waterlool; D. A. Drummond, 3530 Lorraine; Jimmy Little, Arbutus, and W. G. Armstrong, Prospect Lake Road. He is also charged with robbing Mount Newton High School and the Dominion Construction Co., Tillamook Road.

William is charged with illegally retaining in his possession articles of over the value of $25 from the homes of Mr. Hunter and Mr. Drummond.

Form Softball Club

LANGFORD A softball club is being formed by Langford Community Club, and play will be on a field behind the club-house.

Mrs. A. Markle and Mrs. Gordon Root have been appointed delegates to the dental clinic committee.

Mrs. Marshall's husband and her obstetrician, Dr. Arthur E. Nash, were in Seattle at the time—attending an obstetrical convention.

By the purest of coincidences, they were listening to a lecture by Dr. Edward A. Schuman, who had just said: "The trend toward unassisted childbirth has some merit if not carried to extremes."

Friends said the infant had not been expected for about three weeks.

School Projects Face Curtailment

Straith Notifies All B.C. Boards To Reconsider New Building Plans

Education Minister W. T. Straith revealed this afternoon that he has notified school boards throughout the province to reconsider plans for new school buildings with a view to eliminating many projects now planned.

Offer Property To Auctioneer

City Council Thursday agreed to call for tenders for purchase of Prince Robert House property but "in the meantime" offered it to Phillip Freeman, auctioneer, for $100,000 on terms acceptable to council.

In the meanwhile the auctioneer did not take the proposed $1,000 wage of Russell Ker, realtor, seriously.

These were later developments in the wake of a letter sent to City Council by Mr. Freeman in which he offered to auction Prince Robert House property and said it was worth three times the $48,000 offered by Ker and Stephenson on behalf of Carwood Trading Co.

Mr. Ker bet the auctioneer he could not get $150,000 for the property at auction. Mayor Percy George today said the city could not sell the property at auction.

Likely to be affected by the Department of Education curtailment program are six projects of Greater Victoria School Board, including construction of two new junior high schools and extensive alterations to four other schools, it was learned.

The minister said the government is anxious to reduce school building this year to one-half what it was in 1950. The government has virtual control of all school building since it provides 50 per cent of the cost of all new schools.

Last year, the provincial government provided $10,000,000 to take care of its share of new school buildings. This year only $5,000,000 has been set aside.

Nearly 6,000 train trips are scheduled daily in the underground railways of London, Eng.

PROVINCE TAKES OVER RENT CONTROL OFFICE, PERSONNEL

The provincial cabinet by order-in-council today gave Labor Minister John Cates authority to take over the staff and offices of the federal rental control board in Vancouver, for the purpose of maintaining rent controls after April 30, when the federal government drops out of the field.

About 12 persons will be changed from federal to provincial civil servants.

The cabinet also today specified that County Court judges will continue to rule on rental cases after the time of change.

Delay Action On Civil Servants' Pay Request

British Columbia's $7,700 provincial civil servants will have to wait a while longer before they get an answer from the government to their request of last month for a 15 per cent wage increase.

Acting Premier W. T. Straith revealed this afternoon the special cabinet committee dealing with the matter, which he heads, had discussed the question in some detail but would wait until there is a full meeting of the cabinet before bringing forth any recommendation. At today's cabinet meeting, only four ministers were present.

Crash Kills Two

FORT WILLIAM (CP) — A man and woman were killed at midnight when their car crashed into the deck of a parked truck, careened on for a block and came to rest in a front yard. The impact tore the top off the car. Stella Storzuk, 31, was dead when police arrived. Emil Eliszczuk, 26, a former D.P., died three hours later in hospital.

Funeral Saturday

Funeral service will be held Saturday at 11 at Hayward's for Mrs. Edith Mary Willing, Victoria resident for 41 years, who died Wednesday at her home, 451 Glenhurst Avenue. Rev. Moir A. J. Waters will officiate. Mrs. Willing, born in Ontario 75 years ago, leaves her husband, Richard, two daughters, two sisters and three brothers.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Can't Get Stomach Down?
Maybe It Is Small Enough

(The Friday Question Box)

Q—"In your column a woman reader was told she could lose 2 inches from her hips in one month. I am 17 years old; 5 feet, 3 inches tall, and weigh 112 pounds. My bust measures 34 inches; waist, 25½ inches, and hips, 35 inches. My waist was 27 inches before doing your prescribed exercises. I have been doing six exercises 20 times a day for six months. Why have I reduced my waist only one-and-a-half inches?"

A—"Probably because there just isn't any fat left to be stretched their hair grows. The average is about a quarter of an inch a month. Perhaps you are too impatient since it has only been four months. You may expect to see too much difference. A well-balanced diet, good health, daily scalp massage and hair brushing may speed it up.

Q—"I am 20 years of age. My measurements were: Bust, 36; waist, 25½; hips, 35. I had a baby seven months ago and find that my bust now measures 34 inches. I did not nurse my baby and wonder why my bust is shrinking."

A—"During pregnancy the bust becomes heavier. It may be that you did not support it during that time with correct bras. After enlargement of the bust during this time there is a tendency to sagging afterwards, when it returns to normal. Send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for my bust developing exercises, leaflet No. 7. I think you can greatly improve this condition.

Q—"I have practically no eye-brows. Is there anything I can do?"

A—"Massage along the brow line. Place your third finger on one spot and massage in a rotary motion. Pick the finger up and place it in another spot, etc. Sometimes this is due to a glandular condition. Sometimes it is just an inherited trait. Ask your doctor. Use an eyebrow pencil with little feathery strokes. Then blend with your finger.

TODAY'S RECIPE

CHANTILLY ORANGE TAPIOCA

One-quarter cup quick-cooking tapioca, ½ cup sugar, ¼ teaspoon salt, 1½ cups water, 1 cup orange juice, 1 teaspoon grated orange rind, ½ cup cream, whipped.

Combine quick-cooking tapioca, sugar, salt, and water in saucepan. Place over medium heat and cook until mixture comes to a full boil, stirring constantly. Add orange juice and rind. Remove from heat. Cool, stirring occasionally. Chill. Then fold in whipped cream. Pile lightly in sherbet glasses. If desired, garnish with very fine ¼-inch shreds of orange rind, free from all white membrane. Makes six servings.

off. Your proportions are very good. Just about perfect, and you are not overweight.

Q—"I am a girl 13 years old. I am 5 feet, 2½ inches tall. Could you please give me my perfect weight?"

A—"About 116 pounds. Do not go in for fad diets. Eat a well-balanced diet but leave off desserts (eat fresh fruit instead) fried foods, candy and pastry and soda fountain mixtures.

Q—"Could you please tell me how I can make my hair longer? About four months ago I cut some of the dead ends and my hair hasn't seemed to grow since. I have been told that if you cut a little of the hair off regularly it will grow longer. Is this true?"

A—"No. Hair grows from the roots or scalp and cutting the length has nothing to do with it. People vary in the rate at which

Get Out The Shovel, Pop! Time To Plant The Garden

By PENNY SAVER

If you've ever had a passion for geraniums, for the front garden, a hanging basket or a window box, now is the time to look over the fine display of plants in town. From spring-whites to shades of red and pinks. The sum of $1.15 will buy three of the colorful plants.

Early varieties of chrysanthemums are in and waiting for your approval at $1.25 a dozen.

Bedding plants are in the seasonal spotlight and in plentiful supply. Sitting demurely in their boxes were the fragrant lily of the valley, 35 cents a bunch; anemones, single and double varieties, 25 pennies each; polyanthus, 2 for 55 cents, stocks, 40 cents a dozen, and for "snapping" dragons, the same price.

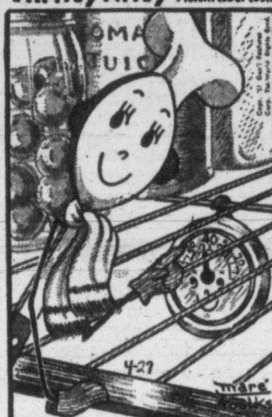

Although it seems too early... years past, the wise gardener waited until May 24 to put tender little tomato plants into the ground... there is a plentiful supply of Beefsteak and "Best-Of-Alls," on hand. Price tags on the sub-acid varieties... that's the Beefsteak... 35 pennies and the same price for the others.

The hardy type characters in this planting crowd are the 30 pennies a dozen New York head lettuce plants; Snowball cauliflower, the same price and strawberries, 5 pennies more a dozen.

My goodness... now there's a stainless steel hamburger turner with a 15-year guarantee! Nice to know about, I thought, especially for the bride-to-be.

That little turnover will do a neat job of whipping over a pancake or a tasty fried egg. Beautifully assembled and $2.95 to buy. The same amount of money will pay for a longer handled cake turner.

Green peas were down another penny today and weighing in at 18 pennies a pound... avocados continue to startle the shopper at 20 pennies each. Remember when they retailed at 45 cents each last year?

MARY HAWORTH'S MAIL

Contradicts Theory Working Girls Unscrupulous In Pursuit Of Married Men

Dear Mary Haworth: I read your column and really enjoy it. I think you give good sound advice to people who evidently are in need. But I've noticed how you and other counsellors take digs at office girls and others who work for a man boss in any walk of life. The critical attitudes seems to be that all such girls are unscrupulous and are constantly trying to take married men from their wives. In fact, the statement was made by some writer that career girls seem to prefer married men.

I would like to put on record a true story to disprove that idea. I am a married man, have children and have been married 12 years. I have a good job, a new home, and I am well supplied with the material comforts of life. The only drawback is that my wife has a pernicious illness, with the Mary Haworth outcome uncertain. She has been ill intermittently for several years, which throws the heavy housework on me, but I'm not complaining, and I may honestly say that I've been faithful and true to her.

However, here is the story I want you to know. About three years ago a very beautiful brunette was employed for my office. She is very intelligent, very efficient, has an outstanding personality, and in addition her background and record are of the best, as I learned by checking. I got interested in her. It started off with casual conversation. Day by day my interest mounted.

HER SOFT ANSWER TURNED THE TIDE

One day I asked her to accompany me to an entertainment out of town, the next evening. Believe it or not, her answer was, "I'd love to go, but it wouldn't be right. You'd better think it over several times; you may change your mind." I thought it over and decided to forget it for the present. But it so happened that later I asked her again. Always her answer was, "Really I'd love to; but you are married and have that responsibility at home."

I have reason to believe she really wanted to go; but here was a girl who had sense enough to realize the folly of dating a married man, and discouraged him for his good, as well as her own. I am frank to admit that if she had accepted my first bid I would have left everything—my family, my home, my job, all—to be with her. So I do feel I owe her a lot.—R.D.

APOLOGIES—Last Friday we said The Duke and Duchess of Windsor would be on the air over KOMO, then that afternoon we received a wire stating the program had been suspended. A large number of our readers were disappointed, we know, but the correcting information arrived too late for publication. However, we received confirmation that they WILL be on the air tonight at 7.45 over KOMO. As we told you last week the Duke and Duchess will be interviewed by NBC news and special events director, Henry Cassidy, on the program "Pro and Con." During the broadcast The Duke will read from his published memoirs "A King's Story"—which is a dramatic first person account of his childhood, education and, on up to and including his 325-day reign as uncrowned King of England.

Although some people may think that Alley Oop or King Aroo shouldn't be murmured in the same breath with Hogarth's famous "Rake," they are both forms of the same art—in fact the sketches of "The Rake's Progress" are sometimes said to have been the granddaddy of the "funnies" like Dick Tracy and Orphan Annie, or Bugs Bunny.

Norman Newton, Vancouver writer and art critic has been looking into the comics as a form of art. Now he's on familiar terms with such characters and he's ready to tell what he thinks comic strips are doing to our ideas of art and culture. He will be heard in three weekly talks beginning tonight at 10.45 on CBR.

Saturday is the big day for sports fans—which makes it the big day for Jack (Shorty) McCabe, too. Again this summer, working out of Toronto, he will produce the network coverage of many major sporting events—golf championships, horse races, powerboat, sailboat and rowing regattas. The regular CBC trans-Canada schedule will be interrupted, as necessary, to make way for these special broadcasts.

On the top of that McCabe has a brand new job—behind the desk of a new show called: CBC Sports Page, which will be heard Saturdays from 6.10 to 6.30 p.m., starting this week.

Children Die In Ont. Farm Blaze

WAUBASHENE, Ont. (CP)—Two children were burned to death in their home Thursday while their parents were at a nearby barn milking cows.
Eva Elizabeth Cronin, 10, and her sister, Rose Marie, 2, were trapped in their beds in the frame farmhouse. Fire swept through the dwelling 10 minutes after the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cronin, set out for the barn.

May Visit U.S.

LONDON (Reuters)—Foreign Secretary Herbert Morrison said today he is considering going to Washington for talks with State Secretary Dean Acheson, but it depends largely on the outcome of the foreign ministers' deputies conference in Paris.
"If that comes off I shall probably be going to Washington, but we have got to get over the one first," he said.

Body Of Local Man Found Near Kamloops

Body of Douglas Symonds, 35, Victoria, missing since Jan. 9 while visiting his brother at Kamloops, was found near Kamloops Wednesday, R.C.M.P. headquarters here reported today.
Police said Symonds apparently died from exposure while walking in the snow. Body was discovered by Frank Giacomuzzi, rancher, in a secluded spot.

He was the son of Mrs. A. Symonds, 39 Gorge Road West, Victoria, and had been staying with his brother, Harry. He told his brother he was going for a walk, then disappeared in sub-zero weather.

Police aided by members of the Kamloops Outdoor Club had conducted several unsuccessful searches. It is believed Symonds was overcome by the cold and collapsed in the snow. Fresh snow had hidden the body.

Improve Service On Vancouver Mail

Mail delivery from Victoria to Vancouver will be speeded up with an additional mail dispatch by air, effective May 2, John B. Sinclair, Victoria postmaster, confirmed today.

Postmaster Sinclair said letters posted before 10:45 at night will leave by plane for Vancouver at midnight. This mail will be delivered in Vancouver in the morning. Previously, the mail went by boat and was occasionally not delivered until 48 hours after it had been mailed.

Sentences Reduced

Edward and Joseph Hashka, convicted in Vancouver Police court each on five charges on breaking and entering, were on their way back to B.C. penitentiary today with their sentences reduced by the Appeal Court here Thursday by more than half.

The two youths pleaded for a reduction in sentence. The court reduced the sentence to two years, less one day, and recommended that the pair be confined to open Borstal school.

DOCTOR SAYS

By Dr. Edwin P. Jordan

Today a prospective mother generally has a blood test made to determine whether her blood is Rh negative or Rh positive. The same test is often carried out on the father as well. This is one of several tests to find out what blood group a person belongs to, but it is particularly important in pregnancy because it may affect the health of the offspring.
This is not a simple thing to explain, partly because there are subgroups of the Rh factor, as it is called. Many things will have to be left out of this discussion. In brief, however, 87 per cent of the people have an obscure substance in their blood which, classify them as being Rh positive. The other 13 per cent are called Rh negative and sometimes such persons become sensitive to Rh positive blood, bringing up possible dangers in connection with pregnancy or blood transfusion.

If a woman has Rh negative blood and becomes pregnant with an Rh positive child because the father is Rh positive, the child may be born with a disease known as erythroblastosis fetalis. However this does not always occur. The first child, and often later ones, are usually healthy unless the mother has previously received blood transfusions with Rh positive blood. Even this is becoming more rare because of greater care in this matter. Furthermore, only about one woman in 25 or 50 with Rh-negative blood and an Rh positive husband becomes sensitive and gives birth to a baby with erythroblastosis. It should be pointed out also that even if a child does have erythroblastosis, much can be done by giving blood transfusions so that a high proportion can be saved.

IN A NUTSHELL

It may be useful to summarize the situation:
If both parents are Rh positive there is little to worry about.
If both are Rh negative there is nothing to worry about.
If the mother is Rh positive and the father Rh negative there is nothing to worry over.
If the mother is Rh negative and the father Rh positive, occasional trouble can be anticipated but this is by no means inevitable.

24 U.S. Airmen Dead In Plane Crashes In Oklahoma, Azores

B-36 And Fighter Collide

CARNEY, Okla. (AP)—A B-36 bomber and an F-51 fighter plane collided near here today and the Oklahoma Highway Patrol said at least 13 airmen died in the crash.

The patrol said 13 bodies were counted at the scene, some 50 miles northeast of Oklahoma City. Four men were known to have survived the crash.

The B-36, from Carswell Air Force Base at Fort Worth, Texas, was carrying a crew of 16, patrol headquarters said. The F-51 was one of several from Will Rogers Field, Oklahoma City, which were engaging in manoeuvres with the B-36.

R.C.N. Ships Together In Japanese Port

A UNITED NATIONS NAVAL BASE IN JAPAN (CP)—The three Canadian destroyers serving with the U.N. in the Far East were in port together this week after another patrol period off the Korean coast.

For H.M.C.S. Nootka the high spot of the patrol occurred when she bombed Red installations in the Changan Point area, southwest of Chinnampo on the west coast of Korea.

The Nootka steamed close inshore to carry out the bombardment and, firing at almost point-blank range, flattened the assigned targets with her four-inch guns. There was no return fire and enemy personnel could be seen fleeing from the hills inland from the Nootka's target area.

Meanwhile, the other two Canadian destroyers, the Athabaskan and Huron were operating in another area, screening the aircraft carriers U.S.S. Bataan and H.M.S. Theseus. During this patrol the Athabaskan destroyed her 13th mine.

Scot Convinced Hand Of God Helped Lift Stone

This is the fifth of an 18-article series by the daring leader of the group of Scottish Nationalists who removed the Stone of Scone from Westminster Abbey last Christmas Eve.

LONDON—Kay Matheson started the engine. She is (although she will be annoyed that I say so) a very bad driver, but that morning her bad driving was design and not incompetence.

Never has clutch been let in so jerkily; never has a car veered to one side so crazily. I looked back and waved to the constable. As Kay had expected, he was following down behind us—too amazed at the crazy driving to pay attention to anything else.

We drove to the car park. There was still a chance, but it was a slim one. The Anglia was now more dangerous than the old Ford. As soon as the hue and cry was raised, it would be roped in.

One of us would have to go with the Anglia to create a diversion and, I thought, it should be Kay. My duty, I felt, was to the Stone.

I did not dare to return to the Abbey for half an hour, for the constable did not go off duty till six o'clock. If he caught me again in another car it would be the end.

Where Are The Car Keys?

I decided, therefore, to lead Kay to Knightsbridge in the other car, and put her on the road for Oxford, where she had a friend she thought would give her refuge. I would then return to the Abbey.

I felt in my pockets for the car keys. To my horror I remembered they were in my coat in the Abbey.

I jumped into my Anglia, determined to put Kay on to Victoria at least. I drove through the back streets till I came to a set of traffic lights.

Then I transferred the piece of stone from the back of the car to the trunk, but apparently failed to fasten the trunk securely.

"Go that way," I told her, "and the best of luck." For the benefit of a passerby I kissed her good-bye.

SOCRED CANDIDATE FOR ESQUIMALT BY-ELECTION

H. J. Bruch, president of the Victoria Social Credit group, announced this afternoon the Socreds would enter a candidate in the forthcoming provincial by-election in Esquimalt.

Mr. Bruch said a nomination convention to select a party standard bearer would be held later.

Lyle Wicks, provincial president of the Social Credit Party, earlier announced the party would enter candidates in every constituency in the next general election in this province.

7 Die, 1,000 Hurt As Ship Explodes

British Ammunition Craft Blows Up At Gibraltar; Panic Ashore

GIBRALTAR (Reuters)—A Royal Navy ammunition ship exploded today killing seven persons and damaging every building on the famous rock which guards the western entrance to the Mediterranean.

A navy spokesman, who gave the death toll as seven, added that several gravely injured persons are expected to die.

First reports said more than 1,000 persons were injured.

Lad Dies With Pets

MCKEESPORT, Pa. (CP)—Twelve-year-old George Beattie was burned to death today in a vain effort to rescue his puppy and three kittens. As his mother, father and three brothers raced downstairs to escape from their burning home, George ran into the kitchen after the pets.

Naval authorities said only one member of the 26-man crew of the 1,152-ton auxiliary Bedenham was injured but other reports placed the blast casualties as high as 100. They were apparently all civilian port workers.

It was reported from La Linea, just across the Spanish border, that 50 persons were taken to hospital there and to nearby Algeciras. Some were reported in serious condition.

LIGHTER GOES ALSO

(In London, W. J. Edwards, Civil Lord of the Admiralty, told the House of Commons he understood that a lighter—a small vessel used generally for unloading purposes—alongside the Bedenham, also blew up.

(An Admiralty spokesman declined to comment on the possibility of sabotage until an investigation. The Royal Navy blamed saboteurs for the blowing up last July 14 of nine ammunition barges loading explosives for Korea. That blast in Portsmouth harbor, injured 19.

Early reports said the doors had been blown off the Roman Catholic Church in the naval colony and the famous Rock Hotel was damaged. Fires were started in other ships in the harbor, windows were blown out of a school and children were injured.

Pieces of sheared steel from the ship soared hundreds of feet in the air and rained down into the streets.

It was believed that preliminary explosions which frightened people into taking cover saved many lives.

Eyewitness reports said shells unloaded from the Bedenham first began to explode in a lighter alongside. Those blasts touched off the ship's cargo.
